

Discover the Hills

Explore Outdoors

Part of Halton Hills' charm and beauty is highlighted with acres of outdoor green space. Find a variety of trails suited for everyone, from leisurely strolls to the world-famous Bruce Trail. Our conservation areas and parks are filled with new places to discover.

Find more information about trails, outdoor activities like cycling and golfing, conservation areas and parks at visithaltonhills.ca/outdoorfun

Stop & Shop

Halton Hills offers a variety of shopping experiences, from brand names at the Toronto Premium Outlets and the Georgetown Market Place to local boutiques in Downtown Acton and Georgetown. If you're on the hunt for art and unique vintage pieces, the Beaumont Mill and Feathered Nest in Glen Williams are sure to have what you're looking for.

Visit the Tourism Business Directory to find more shopping locations at visithaltonhills.ca/shop

Great Eats

When it's time to grab a bite to eat, Halton Hills has an exceptional variety of local restaurants. Grab a quick lunch before heading out on a trail, enjoy a fine dining date night, and discover international flavours like Mexican, Indian, Japanese, and Thai; there are options for every palate and price range.

Breweries & Wineries

While visiting a local restaurant, make sure to ask for a local beverage from one of our craft breweries or wineries. Stop in for a tasting flight at the Furnace Room Brewery in Georgetown or pick up beers to go from Hop Society Brewing Company in Acton.

Andrews Farm Market and Winery is the only winery in Halton Region and produces 25 award-winning fruit wines from fruits grown right in Halton Hills.

Adventure awaits

Grown Local

Halton Hills is surrounded by local producers that put fresh food on our tables.

Fill a bushel of apples at Wheelbarrow Orchards, meet farm animals at Andrews Farm Market and Winery, pick up a pumpkin and sweet corn at Allison's Farm Market, or catch a concert at Chudleigh's.

Meet more local producers at our two weekly summer farmer's markets in downtown Georgetown on Saturday mornings and downtown Acton on Thursday evenings.

Find more farm-to-table businesses and farms open to the public at visithaltonhills.ca/farms

Arts & Culture

Halton Hills offers many unique arts and culture experiences you won't find anywhere else. The Halton Hills Library and Cultural Centre is home to the Helson Gallery and John Elliott Theatre; the perfect place to catch a show or to take in the latest art exhibit.

Glen Williams is best known as the local art hub in Halton Hills. Williams Mill Creative Arts Studios has a diverse collection of talented artists' one-of-a-kind art including paintings, jewellery, hand-blown glass, pottery and more.

Stories start here

Celebrate in the Hills

Halton Hills is well known for its exciting annual events. Historical events like the Georgetown and Acton Agricultural Fall Fairs, the Acton Leathertown Festival, the Georgetown Highland Games, and Head for the Hills Craft Beer Festival are just a few of the annual events you can take in.

Participate in annual arts and culture events like Culture Days, Doors Open and Plein Air. Halton Hills welcomes sports tournaments year-round.

The Visit Halton Hills events calendar is full of weekly events, workshops, art exhibitions and live performances. visithaltonhills.ca/events

Winter Fun

Discover Halton Hills all year round. Conservation areas and trails are open in every season. During the winter months our trails are perfect for cross-country skiing, snowshoeing and fat-biking.

Check out the Downtown Georgetown Holiday Market and Light Up the Hills Winter Festival in December to celebrate the holiday season.

Communities

Georgetown: A community rich in sport and culture, Georgetown is known as one of the first communities to organize children's hockey leagues and home to annual events like the Highland Games and Head for the Hills Craft Beer Festival. Visit Downtown Georgetown for unique shops and restaurants, and tour an art exhibit at the Cultural Centre.

Acton: Better known as "Leathertown" Acton was home to a tannery and grist mill dating back to the 1840's. Tanning is a historically important industry in Acton, and at one time the largest tanner in Canada was located in Acton. To celebrate, thousands come out to the Leathertown Festival each year.

Glen Williams: This historic hamlet, located along the banks of the Credit River, was founded in 1825. Along with its picturesque rural setting, the distinctive character of Glen Williams is defined by beautiful heritage buildings that have been turned into artist studios, local restaurants and cafes.

Norval: Norval was home to Lucy Maud Montgomery, the world-famous Canadian author of Anne of Green Gables, from 1926 to 1935. Montgomery wrote six books and journals while she lived in Norval in the 1920s and praised the village for its extraordinary natural beauty.

Hornby: Hornby is located just off highway 401 and is home to an international shopping attraction, the Toronto Premium Outlets, and the 18-hole Hornby Glen Golf Course.
