FESTIVAL & EVENTS

With annual festivals and weekly farmers markets, our Town offers a variety of entertainment and local charm.

EXPLORE OUR COMMUNITIES

ACTON: Better known as "Leathertown" Acton was home to the largest tannery in Canada, dating back to the 1840's. To celebrate, thousands come out to the Leathertown Festival each year.

GLEN WILLIAMS:

The historic hamlet, located along the picturesque banks of the Credit River, was founded in 1825. Glen Williams is defined by its scenic beauty, historic charm, vibrant arts and community.

GEORGETOWN: A lively hub for sport, culture, and events like the Highland Games and Head for the Hills Craft Beverage Festival. Stroll through historic Downtown Georgetown and discover unique shops, restaurants, and cafes.

HORNBY: Conveniently located off Highway 401, Hornby is home to the internationally renowned Toronto Premium Outlets; your one-stop destination for top-tier shopping.

NORVAL: Famous as the home of Canadian author Lucy Maud Montgomery, Norval invites you to stroll through the L.M. Montgomery Garden, explore the Willow Park Ecology Centre and the Credit River.
